Report of Director and School Improvement Council

For the seventh consecutive year, the Abbeville County Career Center received a Palmetto Gold Award from the South Carolina Department of Education. In addition to a flag and certificate, the school was awarded a monetary grant. The School Improvement Council will work with the director to determine how the funds will be expended. Past awards have been used to fund the school's annual Community Night. The Career Center also received an Absolute Rating of Excellent and an Improvement Rating of Excellent on the Annual School Report Card. The school continues to perform well in areas of Vocational Skill Proficiencies, Academic Achievement, Graduation Rate and Placement Rate. We must continue to be diligent in areas of recruitment and retention. As we move forward, our task is to continue to recruit quality student to increase the expectations of those students. By introducing a more rigorous curriculum in the areas of math and science, expanding dual credit and articulation agreements with the local technical college, and providing more internship opportunities for students in their chosen fields, we are placing our students more firmly on the path to success. This year, Project Lead the Way was succussfully implemented into the curriculum at the Career Center.

Despite the awards and accolades, there is much to be done in the many areas at the Abbeville County Career Center. More opportunities must be provided outside of the classroom. Our curriculum must align with the feeder high schools to develop clusters of study. These would include an agriculture, food and natural resources cluster, architecture and construction cluster, health science cluster, human services cluster, and a transportation cluster. The individual student must choose a cluster of study and a career major and, with parents, guardians, and counselors, design an Individual Graduation Plan. We feel that this system will have more students than ever enrolling and completing career and technology education courses. The Career Center is proud to have a Global Certified Career Counselor on staff.

Increased expectations combined with an influx of quality students will increase demands on all our programs. The Automotive Technology program recently achieved certification by the National Automotive Technicians Education Foundation. Other programs at the shcool have to maintain the same high standards. Equipment will be expected to be the latest and best available. Technology will have to be cutting edge. Coursework will have to be challenging. Instructors, in an effort to establish work-based competencies, will focus more on soft skills. These are workplace skills commonly learned through character education and sought by employers. The needs of our students are different than those attending traditional high schools. Every effort must be made to recognize and to meet those needs.
